Fighting Hunger One Pizza at a Time

Vaughan, Ontario, Canada – Humanity First has arranged a drive to put food on the table of the underprivileged to share in the holiday season in letter and spirit. The "Feed a Family" program offers non-perishable food items to people in need. Thousands of families across GTA have benefited from this program for last many years.

Under "Feed the Homeless" program, volunteers will be distributing Pizza, water and juices to the homeless in downtown Toronto area on December 24 and 25. The distribution will start at Allen Gardens (Sherbourne St. and Gerrard St.) at 12 noon on December 24 and December 25.

Commenting on the two programs, the Chairman of Humanity First, Dr. Aslam Daud said "The best charity is feeding a hungry stomach. Our volunteers are working 7 days a week to provide food to needy." While most people will be celebrating the holiday season in the warmth of their homes, let's not forget the homeless in cold and hunger.

We are going to give them pizza for a change." He added. Anyone can call 416-440-0346 or email to foodbank@humanityfirst.ca for food assistance.
