Centennial College Celebrates 50th Anniversary with Special Bag-Packs for Syrian Refugee Children

Vaughan, Ontario, Canada – Humanity First is a proud charitable partner of Centennial College, Ontario's first community college which opened in 1966. To celebrate 50th Anniversary, Centennial College will be providing assistance to 50 Syrian refugee children with a special 50th Anniversary bag-pack with school and winter supplies.

Humanity First has sponsored over 200 Syrian refugees to resettle in Canada since last year. Most of the new Syrian Canadians are now well settled and fully integrated into Canadian life.

To celebrate this initiative and distribute bag-packs to Syrian children, Humanity First will be hosting Centennial College on:

Date: Sunday, December 11, 2016
Venue: Humanity First Foodbank & Head office
Address: 600 Bowes Road, #40, Concord, ON L4K 4A3
Time: 12:30 pm

Commenting on the Syrian Refugee resettlement efforts, Dr. Aslam Daud, Chairman Humanity First Canada said, "Every human deserves a better life. Humanity First stands for building communities and a better future for them. We are very thankful to Centennial College for their continuous support and now this great initiative from them."

Humanity First has recently responded to the natural disasters around the world including Haiti, Nepal, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Ecuador, Philippines and Indonesia. Locally, Humanity First runs a Foodbank which delivers food to over 1000 needy families in GTA every month.
