

Humanity First Urgent Appeal

Bangladesh Cyclone Relief Fund

Millions Affected.
Thousands Dead.

The powerful cyclone and flooding in Bangladesh that has claimed thousands of lives and has left more than a million people homeless. This is the deadliest storm to hit the country in decades and has destroyed tens of thousands of homes in Bangladesh and ruined much-needed crops just before harvest season.

Humanity First aims to provide food, clean water and basic rations to the dislocated people, especially children who would be more susceptible to water borne diseases.

Humanity First has mobilized it's teams to respond to requests for help in the disaster struck areas.

Funds are required urgently to accelerate the distribution of essential supplies. Your generous contribution is greatly appreciated.
