Dine and Let Humanity Shine! GTA community gathers to help those in need!

Vaughan, Ontario, Canada – Humanity First Canada is holding its Annual Charity Fundraising Dinner to support its key programs in Canada and around the globe to assist less fortunate members of our community.

Humanity First volunteers have been actively working in Canada and around the world on various humanitarian projects. This year's event will focus on four key projects.

- a. Refugee Resettlement – to assist those living in dehumanizing conditions in Thailand
- b. New Schools in Haiti – to help with education of our next generation
- c. Launch of new Online Foodbank – access to food 24hrs/day 7 days a week in Canada
- d. Launch of Mobile Shelter for Homeless in Toronto – to help augment existing shelter capacities in GTA and provide warm shelter for the homeless in Toronto.

To support the above projects Humanity First Canada will be holding a Dine and Let Humanity Shine - Fundraising Dinner on:

Date: Friday, November 30th, 2018 – Registration at 6:00pm
Venue: Toronto Grand Convention Centre
Address: 30 Baywood Rd, Etobicoke, ON M9V 3Y8

Commenting on this campaign, Dr. Aslam Daud, Chairman Humanity First Canada said:

“Over the years Humanity First has been actively busy in many projects at home and around the world. Still there is much more that can be done. We are excited to launch these projects to provide basic necessities of humanity, food, education, shelter and safety. This will make a positive change in Canada and around the world.”
