Humanity First Celebrates Holiday Season with Homeless by Providing Hot Pizza Volunteers to distribute over 2000 food bags with Pizza slices

Toronto, Ontario, Canada – Humanity First has arranged a drive to put food on the table of underprivileged to share in the holiday season spirit of giving. On December 24th and 25th, 2017, volunteers will be distributing Pizza, water and juices to the homeless in downtown Toronto area.

Details of Feed the Homeless Drive Kick-off:

Date: Sunday, December 24, 2017
Drive Kick-off: 11:30am
Meeting Location: Allen Gardens (South Side)
Gerrard St. E & Pembroke St. Intersection
(Look for volunteers with Humanity First Blue Vests)

Humanity First Food Bank regularly serves food to thousands of underprivileged individuals and families per month. In addition to the food bank services, Humanity First also regularly distributes food to homeless on streets and shelters throughout Canada.

Commenting on the two programs, the Chairman of Humanity First, Dr. Aslam Daud said: "The best charity is feeding a hungry stomach. Our volunteers are working 7 days a week to provide food to needy." While most people will be celebrating the holiday season in the warmth of their homes, let's not forget the homeless and less fortunate in our neighbourhoods."

Under other humanitarian programs, Humanity First is currently providing food and other emergency support to Rohingya Refugees in Bangladesh camps.
