Humanity First Celebrates Holiday Season with Homeless by Providing Hot Pizza

Volunteers to distribute over 2000 Food kits with Pizza slices

Toronto, Ontario, Canada – Humanity First has arranged a drive to provide food to the needy and homeless during the holiday season in spirit of giving. On December 24th and 25th, 2018, volunteers will be distributing Pizza, water and juices to the homeless in downtown Toronto area.

Details of Feed the Homeless Drive Kickoff:

Date: Monday, December 24, 2018
Drive Kick-off: 11:00am
Meeting Location: Allen Gardens (South Side)
Gerrard St. E & Pembroke St. Intersection
(Look for volunteers with Blue Humanity First Vests)

Humanity First Food Bank regularly serves food to thousands of underprivileged individuals and families per month. In addition to the food bank services, Humanity First regularly distributes food to homeless on streets and shelters throughout Canada.

Commenting on the feed the homeless drive, the Chairman of Humanity First, Dr. Aslam Daud said: "The best charity is to feeding a hungry. Humanity First volunteers are working seven days a week to provide food to needy." While most people will be celebrating the holiday season in the warmth of their homes, let's not forget the homeless and less fortunate in our neighborhoods."
