Humanity First Begins Nationwide Fundraising Campaign for the Affected Families and Victims of Toronto Van Attack

Toronto, Ontario, Canada – We are saddened and shocked to learn about tragic and senseless death of innocent victims of the terrible incident in Toronto.

We offer our heartfelt condolences to the loved ones of those who were killed, and our thoughts and prayers are for fast and full recovery of those injured.

At this difficult moment, as an International Humanitarian Relief Organization, Humanity First offers any and all support that we can to the families of those affected.

Our donors and sponsors can donate to assist the affected families. Funds collected in this campaign will be used to for the assistance of victims of this tragedy and their families.

Commenting on this tragedy, the Chairman of Humanity First Canada, Dr. Aslam Daud said:

"We are attempting to share the grief with the affected individuals and families. As Canadians and as human beings, we are all united when tragedy strikes people. It is our small effort to offer every possible assistance to these families. We offer our sincerest thoughts and prayers are for those affected by this horrific tragedy."
